IMPORTANT: The Day 1 Activities began with Introductory Questions. Even if you choose not to do any of the activities from Day 1, you must still answer those questions and submit the Day 1 form.

Day 3 Activities begin on the next page.

#1: Encerrada en la Escuela (Part 1)

Today we released our 25th music video, Encerrada en la Escuela.

Did you watch the whole video? You're on the honor system for this one. (Yes or No)

Value: 1 raffle ticket

#2: Encerrada en la Escuela (Part 2)

Take a picture of your class watching this video. Attach the picture in the space below.

Value: 2 raffle tickets

#3: Encerrada en la Escuela (Part 3)

At one brief moment in the video, you can see me, Sr. Wooly. It was an accident with a reflection. Honestly, I could have removed digitally, but I decided to keep it there as a surprise. Can you find it? If so, take a screenshot and include it below.

Value: 3 raffle tickets

#4: Encerrada en la Escuela NUGGETS

Go to “What’s In a Nugget?” for the new story, Encerrada en la Escuela. Choose “Intermediate (Low)”. Then, in Nugget 7, choose the activity “Two Truths and a Lie”. (You need a PRO subscription for this particular activity).

Value: 1 raffle ticket

What is the answer to the 4th question?

#5: Video Blog on Choosing Stories

This morning we released this video blog on how to choose Sr. Wooly stories for your classes. Did you watch it? If so, please write a paragraph below telling whether you agree with the message. You don’t have to agree! As the Sr. Wooly video catalog continues to grow, it will become harder and harder for people to decide which one to pick next. Therefore, I am very interested in your feedback on this issue.

Value: 2 raffle tickets

#6: Twitter

I know it’s totally shameless to use stuff like this to get you follow me on social media. But what made you think I have any shame? Follow me on Twitter. My handle is @senorwooly.

Value: 1 raffle ticket

Do you follow @senorwooly on Twitter? If so, please write your twitter handle in the space provided below.
